MOULTON — — — TEXAS

HAPPY NEW YEAR to all my friends and customers. As I am not prepared to make the desired change in business on January 1st as expected, I will continue to sell all clothing and dress goods at cost during 1897, and all other goods in the house for cash only. I mean what I say as goods have to go regardless of what they cost. Remember these bargains are for cash. Those wishing goods on time must make arrangement and pay old prices.
HENRY KRAUSE.

DELAYED LETTER.

We forgot to state in our last issue that a little girl arrived at Will Krause's on the 11th.

G. Flury shipped the La Grange Opera House scenery last week.

John Baur, who has been off for several months teaching school at Industry returned Sunday to spend the holidays at home.

Miss Alma Wacker and her brother from Ellinger were among our visitors this week.

Gebard Bargman came up last Saturday to take in the ball at Hermann's Hall which was a great success. There were more people than had room to dance.

Mr. Will Moore Sr., of Galveston, is spending a few days in our town.

R. B. Allen, of Hallettsville, was the guest of Bud Moore for a few days.

Joe Macha is building a hall and joining his Saloon.

Mrs. Lancaster is going to leave on the train Thursday to visit relatives in Lockhart.

A. M. Kotzebue has made improvements on his photo gallery.

Everybody did a good business, and Xmas passed off quietly. The fireworks were either taken home or saved till New Year.

Henry Hotmann of Ellinger spent a few days in our town last week. He says that he enjoyed his visit very much and that we may look for him back again real soon.

Miss Justina Kosbiel spent the holidays at home in Ohio.

Prof. Guenther is on the sick list this week.

The School concert last Thursday night was a great success, and the house was packed full with people. The teachers deserve much credit for getting up such a long and splendid programme as follows:

Welcome Song, by School.
Salutatory in English by Ima Dockery.
Salutatory in German—Erna Fehrenkamp.
Salutatory in Bohemian—Vladik Boehm.

The Doll Drill.
The Lost Dog.
Song—Bohemian Quartette by Ed. Boehm's talented children.

The Watch on the Rhine—Tableaux and Song.

Hoop Drill.

The Froggies.

Grosz Mutter, (Grandmother).

The Columbian Drill and Tableaux.

Eternal Love—Instrumental Duet—Misses Jackson.

Piano music was rendered at intervals by Prof. Guenther's music scholars and by Miss Ima Jackson.

After the concert, Cheap John presented to the boys a lot of fireworks and pleased the children very much by a balloon ascension.

G. Flury painted the scenery which was used on the stage at the school concert.

Miss Alma and Arthur Wacker left for home Saturday.

Friday night we had a nice little dance at Kotzebue Hall in honor of Miss Wacker.

John Guenther who is attending the Galveston Medical college was here on a visit last week.

C. B. Floyd took leave of absence for a two weeks' visit to Houston and other points with his family.

R. L. Suop is filling his place at the depot during his absence.

H. S. Anderson is running the barber shop again for F. V. Arnim.

Herman Tab is now proprietor of the furniture store. We wish for him much success in his new undertaking.

EDITOR GAZETTE:

Christmas has come and gone and the New Year 1897 is now with us. We should be very thankful that we have the opportunity of witnessing another New Year.

The Christmas tree at the public school house was well attended Christmas eve. Luke McGinty and Smith Leazear acted as Santa Claus. The writer and Miss Mollie Franks furnished the music. After the Christmas tree was over all repaired to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morisson's where they whiled the hours away in the light fantastic.

Mr. Philip Nolan arrived here on the 26th and stayed until the 29th with us. A dance was given at the residence of Mr. Morisson Monday night complimentary to Philip.

Mr. A. A. Cherry has moved into his new home.

Mr. Frank Clark and family who have been visiting relatives here, returned home last Tuesday.

Miss Jessie Clark left for Waco last Wednesday.

We learn there is to be another wedding soon.

Miss Lizzie Franks, who has been visiting for some time in Uvalde, returned home last Thursday.

An entertainment was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Neely last Thursday night for the benefit of the young people and the older ones as well.

Rev. Fouts Baptist minister, has been chosen by his church at this place to preach for them another year.

The Presbyterians have no pastor at this place now. Cor.

Death of Joachim Herms.

Adolph Herms received a telegram Saturday morning bringing the sad news of the death of his father which occurred at Schulenburg Friday night. His death was sudden and unexpected as he had not been ill previously. He was about 56 years old. Adolph Herms left at once for Schulenburg on receipt of the telegram.

LATER—The following telegram was sent to the Galveston News Saturday:

Schulenburg, Fayette Co., Texas, Jan. 2.—Joachim Herms shot himself in the right temple with a 32-caliber pistol in the presence of his family at his residence in this place at 11 o'clock last night and died instantly. At the inquest, Mrs. Herms, wife of deceased, testified that her husband had been troubled a great deal of late over money matters and that his self-destruction was attributed to this cause.

Deceased was about 57 years old, had a family and lived here five or six years. He was a member of the I. O. O. F. and Knights of Honor.

Paul Staerke has been laid up this week with the grip.

County Treasurer, Jernigan of Travis county, committed suicide last week. His books showed a shortage of $10,000.

E. C. Merseburger is the proud father of a big baby boy. Born Sunday night.

Money to loan—On terms to suit the borrower at low rate of interest.

Last week Max Ruhman bought of C. L. Williams, a lot on the corner across from Welhausen's livery stable. The price paid was $350. E. F. Ruhman, manager for August Schmidt, has leased the lot and will use it for a wood yard.

Ticket 14 won the big dollar at Walters' Bros. The ticket was held by Gehard Tenberg.

Census Notes.

That part of Shiner lying east and south of the railroad tracks contains 150 more inhabitants than west Shiner. In the entire town there are 51 more males than females.

The colored population is less than one hundred.

The census book contains the name and age of every man, woman and child within the corporate limits of Shiner.

There has been one death and three births since the census-taking began. Grandma Williams, aged 76 is the oldest inhabitant, with Grandma Carnes second, aged 73.

A. C. Koepke came home from Warrenton sick, having had fever for the past week.

Mystery surrounds the suicide of R. A. Stuckert the Yaakum lumberman who hung himself Saturday. He went into his office about one o'clock in the afternoon, and looking the door made deliberate preparations for suicide. His body was discovered about an hour afterwards. He was doing an excellent business, but had been in poor health for some time. He leaves a wife and four children.

Rev. J. W. Sims will preach at the M. E. church tonight.

NOTICE! NOTICE!!

Although elected to the office of county judge, I shall continue the practice of law in the district court and will also do any office work, such as writing deeds, etc. Parties having business with me can find me at the court house.

D. A. PAULS.

The Darlington, Wis., Journal says editorially of a popular patent medicine: "We know from experience that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is all that is claimed for it, as on two occasions it stopped excruciating pains and possibly saved us from an untimely grave. We would not rest easy over night without it in the house." This remedy undoubtedly saves more pain and suffering than any other medicine in the world. Every family should keep it in the house, for it is sure to be needed sooner or later. For sale by the Shiner Drug Co.

Louis Loessin and sister, Miss Tillie, of Black Jack were here visiting during the holidays.

Chas. Baumgartner of Schulenburg spent Christmas week here.
